

Tapestry

A collection of Australian women's stories

Jessie Street National Women's Library is a unique specialist library dedicated to the preservation of Australian women's work, words and history. Tapestry aims to honour ordinary Australian women by collecting their life stories. The collection is a valuable contribution to the history of Australian women and is available for study and research. A selection of stories can be found on the Library's website at www.nationalwomenslibrary.org.au

Contribute to Tapestry

The Library encourages you to acknowledge one of the women in your life or tell your own story. These stories are then archived in the Library.

Contributions should be original and not previously published. The story should be up to 2000 words and printed on A4 paper. If possible, a photograph or photographs should be included. Registration of the story costs $20. Please send your contribution with this registration form and payment to Tapestry, Jessie Street National Women's Library, GPO Box 2656, Sydney, NSW 2001.

Tapestry Registration Form

Date.....

Name of contributor.....

Address.....

Suburb/Town.....State.....Postcode.....

Telephone.....Email.....

Name of person acknowledged.....

Relationship of person to contributor.....

Payment

- I enclose a cheque for $20 for registration of this story or
- Please debit the amount of $20 to my credit card
- Visa Mastercard

Card number _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ Expiry date _ / _ / _

Name of cardholder.....

Cardholder's signature.....

Note

*The person acknowledged has given me her permission to contribute her story to Tapestry (If the person is no longer living, write N/A here.....)

*I give permission for Jessie Street National Women's Library to archive this story in its collection for the purpose of study and research.

*I understand that this story may be published on the Library's website.

Signature of contributor.....