

Tapestry

A collection of Australian women's stories

Jessie Street National Women's Library is a unique specialist library dedicated to the preservation of Australian women's work, words and history. Tapestry aims to honour ordinary Australian women by collecting their life stories. The collection is a valuable contribution to the history of Australian women and is available for study and research. A selection of stories can be found on the Library's website at www.nationalwomenslibrary.org.au

Contribute to Tapestry

The Library encourages you to acknowledge one of the women in your life or tell your own story. These stories are then archived in the Library.

Contributions should be original and not previously published. The story should be about 2000 words. An accompanying photograph is welcome. Contributions must be accompanied by the registration form. Please send your contribution, preferably as a Word document, with this form as an attachment to info@nationalwomenslibrary.org.au. Alternatively, you can post it to Tapestry, Jessie Street National Women's Library, GPO Box 2656, Sydney NSW 2001.
